Pastoral Perspective

I still recall a picture on a church bulletin cover I saw sometime during the 1970's (wow – 40 years ago!). It was a picture of a woman hanging out laundry on a clothesline with the accompanying Bible verse, Galatians 6:9, "And let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart." Daily chores, either at work or home, can become drudgery unless you keep your focus on each task's significance.

I think this Great Recession is having a similar depressing effect on many people – as though we don't have enough else to be depressed about. St. Paul's words of encouragement are ones we should keep in mind. In fact, there is much evidence that one of the key ways to combat depression for an individual is to be of service to someone else or some social need in the community. When you're caught in that descending spiral of despair and hopelessness, helping someone else deal with a problem can give you a sense of purpose or accomplishment or, at least, change your perspective.

In January I reviewed the time-line of the struggles of African-Americans to gain their long-denied civil rights. Over the first thirteen years from 1955-68 there were many discouragements and set-backs, obstinate resistance, antagonism, and inaction from governments. The key to success lay in the efforts of many great black leaders, many of them ministers, who encouraged the demonstrators and workers with the message in Galatians: "let us not grow weary in well-doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we do not lose heart." That struggle also revealed the power that came from people looking to God for the spiritual resources to persevere.

In this New Year, in spite of the headlines, the rumors, political rancor, and dismal economic news; in spite of personal set-backs, illness or weariness, take on a Galatians 6:9 attitude. The future is ultimately in the hands of a loving Creator.

In faith, Pastor Mel Burrowes

AROUND TOWN

DA DUMP NEWS

Mixed Paper Recycling News

Paper prices have plummeted, which reduces the Town's income from paper sales. Therefore, we want to minimize our shipping costs by sending full loads to our distributor. You can help us with this effort by breaking down your boxes and packaging completely as possible. We can only do so much once material is thrown in the container at the Dump. Your efforts would be most appreciated. The added bonus for you is that when boxes are broken down flat they take up less space in your home or garage, which could mean fewer trips for you. Paper comprises an average 70% of our waste, with the only prohibited paper being foiled, shiny, or waxed, which throw a wrench in the recycling process. We welcome every other kind of paper, paperboard, cardboard, mailers, etc. It all helps offset the cost of shipping Canterbury's paper bin!

New Plastics Recycling is Catching On!

In 2011 over 3,000 lbs of rigid plastic # 2, 4, & 6 were collected in Canterbury and shipped for recycling! Unfortunately this does not include #5's containers, which is what the majority of yogurt containers and other tubs are made of. However, these markets are getting a foothold and uses for this recycled material are increasing so, hopefully, other types are not far behind. The development of these diversified plastic markets are very good. When success can be achieved in multi-stream programs like ours, it reduces the incentives for the unfortunate practice in some centers of urging consumers to "recycle" this material for years but simply throwing it away once collected. A nationwide recycling publication recently solicited information from us and will be compiling what they gather on the developing plastics recycling markets and more vendors as a resource for this developing avenue in 2012. It only means progress in terms of nationwide recycling rates!

Please Observe the Treasure House Policies

We don't have the space available to store large items out of the weather, so the Treasure House has no choice but to decline acceptance of these items in the Winter. Instead, please take a picture of your item, put it on the FREE board with your number or wait until better weather comes around to try and find a home for your large items. Warped particle-board furniture or items in generally very poor condition generally do not find new homes and do cost money to dispose of, so we require a fee and they should be placed in the construction/demolition debris bin. There is a fee for disposal of electronic items. If they are in working condition then you can pay the disposal fee and we will sticker them as "paid" so another owner can possibly get a few more years out of them. ALL computer items and accessories are still FREE to dispose of at your local Goodwill store in Concord and you can even get a tax-deductible donation receipt if you take advantage of their program! Please do so as it saves you and the Town money in the long run!

Thank you for a GREAT job recycling in 2011! A whopping 54% of the materials that you brought in to the Dump were recyclable! Let's strive for 60% in 2012!

Canterbury Fire Department News

Looking for a red hot gift for Valentine's Day? How about a cord of cut and split firewood? Yes, we are having another raffle for another cord of wood with the drawing to be done on February 14th, just in time for Valentine's Day. It may not be chocolate but it will keep you warm. Contact any firefighter or drop by the station to get tickets.

Speaking of fires, there seems to be some debate about what it means to have the ground fully covered with snow. True, you can burn anytime without a permit when there is snow on the ground but fully covered means good cover, not just a dusting. This winter has been weird and it is probably a good idea to call a warden before you start a fire. Remember, your fire must be at least 50 feet from a building and you never, ever, can burn wood with glues, paints, or plastics on it. This includes plywood, laminates, treated wood, and composites such as flake board. There are substantial fines for burning this type of wood. Take it to the transfer station. At least the material can go to a recycler.

Most of our calls are medical emergencies. It would be helpful to us if you prepared a list of medicines that you are taking, including over-the-counter and vitamins. Have this where it is easy to find. Some people use a clean jar and put it in the refrigerator. It is also good if you have a clear path to a door that is wide enough for our stretcher. If there is anyone in your household that would have difficulty getting out in an emergency, please call the fire station at 783-4798.

Having a birthday recently reminded me how much heat even small candles can generate. Please make sure any candles you use are not close to curtains and they are out before you leave the house or go to bed.

Pennacook Homeland - The Merrimack River Indians

You are cordially invited to join the Upper Merrimack River Local Advisory Committee when it hosts well-known expert on New England's native populations on Monday, February 13, 2012 at 7:30 pm at the Boscawen Town Hall (below the First Congregational Church) at the intersection of US Routes 3 and 4.

David Stewart-Smith will describe how the river helped one of northern New England's largest Native Communities thrive during a period of ecological and cultural challenges. He will present traditional ways of life along the river and in various Native towns.

Mr. Stewart-Smith is a former professor of history and cultural studies at Vermont College of Norwich University and now serves as the historian for the New Hampshire Intertribal Native American Council. His research into New Hampshire's Indian history and archaeology spans over 30 years during which time he studied with several Native American elders, distinguished scholars, and archaeologists.

You can listen to David talk about his work on a recent New Hampshire Public Radio "The Exchange" at http://www.nhpr.org/post/new-hampshires-immigration-story-new-hampshires-earliest-residents-and-immigrants.

POST OFFICE

There is one Federal Holiday in the month of February. The Canterbury Post office will be closed on Monday, February 20, Presidents' Day. We will maintain our regular schedule for the rest of the month.

On January 22 the price of stamps went up one cent. It now costs 45 cents to mail a normal letter, and a book of 20 stamps is now $9.00. Since all the first class rate stamps issued last year were Forever stamps, most people won't be affected by this. The price for the extra ounces stayed at 20 cents. The price for international letters did change. Letters going to Canada or Mexico now cost 85 cents. All other countries cost $1.05. By the time you get this, I should have the stamps for these new rates. Stamps for post cards changed to 32 cents per card. My supply of stamps got very low after the holidays. With the price changes, I am starting to get a number of new stamps in, so there will be a greater variety to choose from.

I will have some IRS tax forms available here at Canterbury Post Office. They are the most commonly used forms. If you need tax forms, the best place to get them is to go to the IRS' website, irs.gov. You can then print off your own form. If you are sending forms into the IRS, their preferred proof of mailing is to send the envelope by certified mail. If you are sending any mail out with a special service (certified, return receipt, insured, delivery confirmation, registered) it is very helpful if you have picked up the form from the Post Office and filled it out before you bring the piece in to mail.

I have heard nothing new about Post Office closings. I think if there was anything being considered for the Canterbury Post Office, there would be some signs that would alert me. So far, there has been nothing like that. Our numbers continue to be good. I would like to thank everybody who has shown support by doing business here. My new computerized retail system helps to quantify the amount of business that we do daily. Again, thank you for your support.

~Ted LeClair Postmaster Canterbury NH 03224

"Volunteers are valentines for all seasons."

~Jacqueline Schiff

Dear Fellow Canterbury Resident (and thereby Historical Society member),

We are writing to enlist your support of the Historical Society. As you know, we sponsor many programs and events throughout the year, as well as maintain the Town's Archive Collection located in the Elkins Library. There are many ways that your support could help us. Here a few ideas:

- Volunteer to help with our Archive Project, which involves entering data about our Collection in our computer system. Once accomplished the system will provide precise information, better control, and eventually easier access to its contents. You would also assist in scanning documents, artifacts, and other Collection items into our computer.
- 2. Volunteer to assist in our "One Room School House Project" which allows all of our Elementary School children to spend a day at the Houser Center School and come to know what students experienced when 10 one-room schoolhouses served the Town. You could help by assisting in the planning of the program, preparing the schoolhouse for classes, assisting our teachers in the classroom, or even becoming a teacher yourself!
- 3. Each year we launch an exhibit in the Elkins Memorial Building highlighting subjects focusing on various aspects of Canterbury's history, such as last summer's show which told the story of churches and religions since the Town's founding in 1727. This is a major effort and you could help by working on research, carpentry, show installation or hosting the show on days it is open.
- 4. Website and email correspondence tasks are becoming more important to us and we could use help in keeping our site updated and remaining current on inquiries.
- 5. We receive many inquiries regarding genealogies and family histories. You could help by researching these inquiries using our Archive and Cemetery records.
- 6. There are several projects that we aspire to complete which would require expert resources. For example, we would like to place the Town Hall, Houser Center School and the Elkins Memorial building on the National Register. Do you know an architect who could help, along with volunteers who could assist in research and proposal submission? Another project is the purchase and placement of Historic Markers at landmark locations in Town. For example, the site of the Worsted Church at Hill's Corner.

You can volunteer by calling Bob Scarponi @ 783-9594; contacting a member of our Board, or emailing us at Canterbury.nh.historical.society@gmail.com.

Finally, and perhaps more importantly, you could help by making a tax-deductible contribution to the Society (we are a 501-(c)3 non-profit organization). Would you consider a donation of $5.00, $10.00, $20.00 (or more), to help us continue our programs and fulfill our aspirations? If so, our mailing address is P.O. Box 81, Canterbury, 03224. Thank you for your consideration. Sincerely,

Canterbury Historical Society Board of Directors

Upper Merrimack River Local Advisory Committee

Summary of the Annual Report • 2011

The upper Merrimack River Local Advisory Committee (UMRLAC) represents: Boscawen, Bow, Canterbury, Concord, Franklin, and Northfield in a variety of studies, planning activities, and programs related to the Upper Merrimack River and its watershed. UMRLAC serves as the six town's/cities' advisory board to the state's rivers management and protection program.

The UMRLAC owes much of its success to strong municipal support and its Adopt-a-River Site Sponsors including: Aquarian Analytical Laboratories, Inc., Aries Engineering, Inc., Checkmate Expert Payroll Services, Elektrisola, Essex/Briar Hydro, Franklin Savings Bank, Franklin Wastewater Treatment Facility, Public Service of NH (Corporate and Merrimack Station), and Watts Regulator/Webster Valve. The UMRLAC also thanks the Conservation Commissions and Towns and Cities of Boscawen, Bow, Canterbury, Concord, Franklin, and Northfield for their ongoing support.

The UMRLAC's activities this year included:

- UMRLAC implemented the Upper Merrimack Management and Implementation Plan (posted on our website) with assistance from the Central New Hampshire Regional Planning Commission. We surveyed the planning boards, zoning boards, and conservation commissions of the six communities about their setback and buffer requirements. Many thanks to Vanessa Goold and Matt Monahan, CNHRPC, for their great work on this effort. In 2012, the UMRLAC will be conducting a mid-term evaluation of its Plan.
- The UMRLAC provided local comment on several project proposals important to our region, including the I-80 Turkey River exit, river access for the Public Service Company of New Hampshire, Concord Airport, NH Technical Institute parking lot expansion, and others.
- The UMRLAC testified on a number of bills including those affecting the Rivers Management and Protection Act and the Comprehensive Shoreland Protection Act.
- Upper Merrimack Monitoring Program continues to work with several dozen volunteers to monitor water quality on the upper Merrimack River. Thank you to Essex Hydro and Kathy and Jacob Arseneau for your work monitoring Franklin Falls.
- Special thanks go to St. Paul's School for graciously hosting UMRLAC's "Bug Nights" educational and research
- Michele Tremblay worked on streamlining permitting requirements and notifications with the NH Department of Environmental Services.
- Several upper Merrimack communities have endorsed Wild and Scenic designation for the river.
- This year, the UMRLAC started a new column, "River Ramblings" with each representative taking a turn submitting the article. Please look for it in your town and city newsletters.
- The UMRLAC elected the following slate of officers in November: Michele Tremblay, Chair; Steve Landry, Vice-Chair, Krista Crowell, Treasurer; and Gary Lynn, Secretary.

Please visit UMRLAC's website for a full copy of this report, for information on the river, committee membership (we need representatives from Concord), activities, summaries from prior meetings, upcoming meeting agendas, maps, and water quality data. For additional information, please contact Michele Tremblay at 603.796.2615, or at MLT@naturesource.net or any of your municipal representatives listed below

Winter Workshops at Canterbury Shaker Village

The Herbal Kitchen: Fun Friday Workshops with Herbalist Maria Noël Groves

Discover how easy and fun it is to make herbal remedies from your backyard! Each workshop will focus on a different way to transform herbs into healing remedies – as food, medicinal remedies, and recipes for the body. You'll leave each workshop with a several samples and recipes to try in your own kitchen. The cost of the class is $35 per class, with 10% discount for Canterbury Shaker Village members. To register contact Group Sales & Workshops, 603-783-9077 x 230 or email education@shakers.org

February 17 – Super Herbal Immunity

Don't let the cold and flu get you during these cold months. We'll discuss key immune-boosting herbs from the garden and demonstrate techniques for making your own remedies to fend off and fight infections. Sample several teas and create your own blend to bring home, and learn how to make elderberry syrup, among other recipes.

March 16 – Healing the Body Through the Skin

Our skin takes a beating in winter. Learn how to make healing herb-infused oils for dry, itchy skin as well as other issues like varicose veins, aging skin, chronic pain, acne, and fungal infections. We'll turn the herbal oil into a salve and cream for you to bring home and also discuss simple yet profoundly effective topical remedies like poultices and herbal baths for everything from broken bones to achy joints.

April 20 - The Kitchen Apothecary: Making Herbal Medicine at Home

Spring is upon us, and the garden and forest will soon abound with medicinal herbs. Learn how to harvest them at their peak to dry for tea and capsules, make medicinal extracts (tinctures and vinegars), herbal honey, and more. You'll get to make your own tincture or vinegar and capsules to bring home.
